

DIRECTORY

AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAMS IN PHILADELPHIA

ASAP'S DIRECTORY helps families in Philadelphia make the most of the after school hours with information on thousands of after school programs.

IN PRINT

In partnership with the Philadelphia Daily News, each year ASAP releases a printed directory of after school programs reaching an estimated 110,000 households.

ONLINE

To make finding the right after school program easier, families can look for specific activities by using the search engine at phillyasap.org.

ON THE GO

For smartphone users, ASAP's Directory is now available on the City of Philadelphia's Philly311 app available through the iTunes and Android stores.

LEARN MORE Contact Paul Carroll at 215-545-2727 ext. 11 or pcarroll@phillyasap.org

What happens after graduation starts with what happens after school.

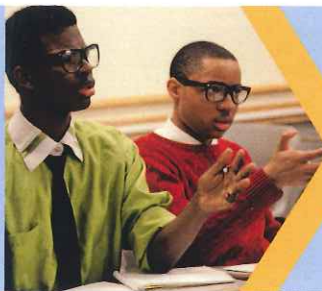

ASAP/After School Activities Partnerships develops and supports high-quality after school activities and resources to empower youth and strengthen communities in Philadelphia.

ASAP'S INITIATIVES keep kids safe and engaged through activities and experiences that teach skills and broaden horizons.

CHESS develops problem-solving and strategic-thinking skills.

With 180 clubs meeting weekly and competing monthly, ASAP Chess serves more than 2,500 youth each year.

DEBATE builds critical reading and public speaking skills.

Through ASAP Debate, more than 400 youth in 45 middle and high school clubs explore important issues.

SCRABBLE teaches the essential building blocks of literacy.

Through weekly play and citywide events, ASAP Scrabble serves more than 1,100 students active in 80 clubs.

DRAMA develops teamwork skills and expands cultural knowledge.

For more than 600 youth in 50 clubs, ASAP Drama nurtures young people's powers of expression.

www.phillyasap.org

Contact ASAP at 215-545-2727 or info@phillyasap.org

/phillyasap